A WOMAN ON TRIAL

Miss Dorothy Olsen of Oakland having lodged a charge of indecent assault against a society man in Oakland named McNulty, the court proceeds to try the case. For several days the young lady, who enjoys the confidence of every one who knows her, has been subjected to a contemptible cross-examination by a lawyer named Abraham Lincoln Frick. The case has every appearance of one in which Miss Olsen is on trial. If a man were to meet Miss Olsen on the street and ask her the insulting questions asked by Frick the nearest bystander would punch his head on call, but because he gets a fee for his work he has the liberty of practicing his unfairness in court.

The shameless exhibitions in so-called courts of justice naturally deter women similarly assaulted from bringing complaints and thus men of the McNulty type feel that they are not taking many chances of being brought into court on charges of this character.

The case made out against McNulty is a plain one and there is sufficient corroborative evidence to demonstrate that the charges made by Miss Olsen are true.

A FALSE DEMOCRATIC LIGHT

Alton B. Parker, who went to the head of the National Democratic ticket two years ago as the mere puppet of the Hill, Belmont and Ryan contingent in New York has kicked the lid of his political coffin and is now attempting to give advice to the democratic party.

No man who ever ran on a Democratic ticket is today more discredited than this same false alarm, Alton B. Parker.

He was a colorless, characterless individual who was simply put to the front to help the gold bugs of New York humiliate and degrade Bryan who was pleading in the Convention for a bold and aggressive candidate with red blood in his veins.

The Philippine Islands, have cost this country over eight hundred millions, many thousands of lives and the contemptuous criticism of other nations. The question arises. When will we get our money and our character back?

Stephen Roberti Sativa will follow in the footsteps of Battling Nelson, "Scotty" and the rest of the great celebrities of today and take to the footlights. A melodrama entitled "Shoots Man Through Back in Self Defense" would doubtless prove a great money-maker.
